

Art Minor

A minor in Art may be taken with concentrations in art history, studio art, or photography. The minor will be drawn up in consultation with the department head. A minor in art consists of at least 18 semester hours, including at least 6 advanced hours.