

Political Science Second Major

The second major in political science is ideal for those students engaged in other disciplines who want to add a robust complement to their educational portfolio. Students are introduced to the key paradigms in the subject areas that comprise political science and develop analytical and critical thinking skills in addition to engaging in effective written and oral communication. The second major in political science pairs well with students interested in business, history, communication, and media.

Required courses in the second major

PSCI 335	Political Economy	3
PSCI 488	Contemporary Ideas	3

Political Theory and Philosophy

Choose 1 course from the following: 3

PSCI 332	Democ & Democratization
PSCI 410	Order, Justice, and Community
PSCI 411	Liberty, the State, and the Person
PSCI 412	The Age of Ideology
PSCI 430	Rev & Revolutionary Movmt

Public Policy

Choose 1 course from the following: 3

PSCI 342	Intro to Global Pub Pol
PSCI 346	Intro to Public Policy
PSCI 437	Foreign Policy
PSCI 442	Constitutional Law
PSCI 443	Civil Liberties and Civil Rights

American Politics

Choose 1 course from the following: 3

PSCI 341	American Presidency
PSCI 344	Amer Pol Par/Electoral Po
PSCI 345	Public Opinion
PSCI 441	Congressional Politics
PSCI 442	Constitutional Law
PSCI 443	Civil Liberties and Civil Rights

Comparative Politics

Choose 1 course from the following: 3

PSCI 331	European Political System
PSCI 332	Democ & Democratization
PSCI 333	Non-European Polit System
PSCI 415

International Relations

Choose 1 course from the following: 3

PSCI 333	Non-European Polit System
PSCI 342	Intro to Global Pub Pol
PSCI 430	Rev & Revolutionary Movmt
PSCI 437	Foreign Policy
PSCI 438	International Relations

Total Hours 21

First Year

Fall Hours

Delete This Text

Total Hours: 0 0